Good governance impacts sustainability and value

THE Securities Investors Association (Singapore) is holding the 8th Singapore Corporate Governance Week 2017 themed "Purpose, Values & Culture – How Does it Drive Governance?", from Sept 18 to Sept 22, 2017.

Organised by SIAS, CG Week is endorsed and supported by OECD, the Association of Banks Singapore, the Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority (Acra) and the Singapore Accountancy Commission (SAC) as supporting organisations, as well as the Singapore Exchange as the supporting exchange.

A key feature of the week-long programme is the Statement of Support by corporates to uphold and advance good corporate governance standards. This statement reads:

"As an organisation, we are committed to upholding high standards of corporate governance to enhance shareholder value. We believe practising good corporate governance is central to the health and stability of our financial markets and economy."

To date, 122 companies have joined the Statement of Support initiative for excellence in corporate governance.

Lim Ming Yan
President & Group CEO
CapitaLand Limited

"Governance and sustainability are entrenched in the way we run CapitaLand's business. We believe that they are key to building trust in our stakeholders, creating long-term value for our stakeholders and ensuring sustainable growth for the company. We have clear governance policies and our team members share common values, with integrity being at the core. We will continue to push the boundaries of excellence in governance and sustainability, as we aim high to set the benchmark for the industry."

Wong Yu Wei
Deputy Chairman &
Executive Director
Boustead Projects Limited

"Although Boustead Projects is a relatively new listed company, our corporate heritage as part of the larger Boustead group dates back to 1828 and we have always believed that good governance makes for good business. In this regard, upholding high standards of corporate governance contributes directly to the better performance of our company and to achieving our objective of creating sustainable long-term value for all our shareholders and other stakeholders."

Chew Tuan Chiong
Chief Executive Officer
Frasers Centrepoint Asset
Management Ltd

"We regard good corporate governance to be the foundation of the sustainable well-being of a successful organisation. Accountability, transparency in management and prudence are key to enhancing the enterprise value of FCT. Through good corporate practices, we seek to further strengthen the positive relationship with our stakeholders, investors and the greater financial market."

Jack Lam
Chief Executive Officer
Frasers Centrepoint Asset
Management (Commercial) Ltd

"We truly believe that strong corporate governance is an essential pillar for a sustainable and value-enhancing business. This year Frasers Commercial Trust has received major awards for corporate governance, investor relations and our FY2016 annual report, which are all testaments to our continuous efforts in upholding high corporate governance standards."
